Welcome and Opening Prayer

Hymn

The Lords my shepherd, I'll not want
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green, he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness
E'en for his own names sake.

Yea though I walk In death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear none ill
For thou art with me and thy rod
And staff me comfort still

My table thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes
My head thou dost with oil anoint
And my cup overflows

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling place shall be.

Reading

Proverbs 31:25-31

read by Nigel Lane

She is clothed with strength and dignity;
she can laugh at the days to come.

She speaks with wisdom,
and faithful instruction is on her tongue.

She watches over the affairs of her household
and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children arise and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her:

“Many women do noble things,
but you surpass them all.”

Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;
but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

Honour her for all that her hands have done,
and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

Prayers

followed by the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

Forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory

For ever and ever.

Amen

Hymn

Praise my soul the King of heaven,
To his feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like me his praise should sing?
Praise him! praise him!
Praise him! praise him!
Praise the everlasting King!

Praise him for his grace and favour
To our fathers in distress;
Praise him still the same for ever,
Slow to chide and swift to bless.
Praise him! praise him!
Praise him! praise him!
Glorious in his faithfulness!

Father-like, he tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame he knows;
In his hands he gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes.
Praise him! praise him!
Praise him! praise him!
Widely as his mercy flows!

Angels, help us to adore him;
Ye behold him face to face;
Sun and moon, bow down before him,
Dwellers all in time and space.
Praise him! praise him!
Praise him! praise him!
Praise with us the God of grace

Irish Blessing

read by Ben Lane

May the road rise to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face
The rains fall soft upon fields
And until we meet again
May God hold you in the palm of his hand

Recessional Music

Leaving on a Jetplane – Pepe Robles

The committal and burial will take place at
